

Royal Pelican Condominiums are ideally situated for fun, relaxation, and year round living within the Bay Beach resort area for Fort Myers Beach, pictured above.

The challenging design of the only golf course on Fort Myers Beach will fill a morning or afternoon with pleasure if you are an occasional golfer, or where you can sharpen your skills if you are a more serious golfer. The Pro Shop is located just across the street from the Royal Pelican Condominiums.

Walk or bike to the Bay Beach fishing pier and to the Bird Watch Tower, from where you can view the exotic array of tropical birds that frequent both the mangrove islands of Estero Bay and the ponded areas of Bay Beach.

A wide beach access just across Estero Boulevard leads to the Gulf of Mexico where Bay Beach residents swim and stroll the white sandy beach, collecting a myriad of sea shells on outlying sandbars.

The Bay Beach tennis courts are just across Bay Beach Lane from the Royal Pelican, and a short walk on Estero Boulevard takes you to the Santini Plaza, the largest shopping center on Fort Myers Beach. Other conveniences close by include fine restaurants, churches and a medical center.
